Seal and signature.....

When requesting participation exhibitors must attach a copy of the General Regulations which should be signed on each page.
 In accordance with art. 1341, second paragraph, the undersigned company, having understood that this request is binding and irrevocable, declares to have read both the enclosed insurance policy and the articles of the General Regulations for the exhibition and to accept them unconditionally and in their entirety. In particular it declares to have read closely and approved, specifically and in writing, the following provisions: Art. 1/3/4/5/6/7/8 Title I - Art. 9/10/11/12/13/14/15/16/17/18/19/20/21/22 Title II - Art. 23/24/25 Title III - Art. 26/27/28/29 Title IV - Art. 30/31/32/33/34/35/36/37 Title V.

(Gen. Reg.) Art. 5 - The organisation shall be entitled to keep the sums paid as a deposit even if the exhibitor, once the participation form has been sent in, states, in a written notice received by the organisation by and no later than 9/1/2018, that he/she no longer intends to take part in the event.

Should this written notice be received by the aforementioned date and the exhibitor has not yet paid any deposit, he/she shall anyway be required to pay 30% of the sum that he/she would have had to pay if he/she had actually taken part. Should the notice be received after 9/1/2018, the exhibitor shall be required to pay the entire sum due for participation (as well as VAT).
